Programs

Beware The Shifting Sands*—chasing a killer through the Black Hills of South Dakota

Tuesday, April 16, 6:30pm

Join local author Mark Macedonia for a murder mystery along a blood-soaked trail confronting extortion, nativism, prejudice, and racism...

In the summer of 1928, a strange twist of fate finds Parker Simms, reluctantly back in western South Dakota—the area of his roots—as a result of a voluntary leave of absence from work. Employed as a private detective within the William J. Burns Detective Agency, his previous assignment for the firm had linked him to the federal government's Teapot Dome Scandal, bringing unwanted national attention to the agency. Simms is even more baffled by how the killer links the murders to the popular children's book, The Wonderful Wizard of Oz,

PLEASE REGISTER

Mark's book will be for sale.

Seeking the Spiritual Book Group Wednesday, April 10 at 6:30pm

tinyurl.com/shalerseekers

Sessions are gently facilitated by Miss Jill and Miss Ing from the Shaler Library. Their path is Christianity; however, people of all faiths (and none) are welcome! The only requirements are open hearts and open minds.

Estate Planning for a Disabled Child

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1:30-2:30PM

PLEASE REGISTER

If you have a child or loved one with a disability or that might need long-term care, find out the best way to plan for your future as well as theirs.

Will vs. Trusts—Do You Really Want to Avoid Probate?

WEDNESDAY, MAY 22, 1:30-2:30PM

PLEASE REGISTER

What is a Will? What is a Trust? How do they differ and what are the pros and cons of each one. What is Probate and can you really avoid it? Or need to? Find out at this information session.

Presented by Rebecca A. Olds, Nora Curley Peace, and Jeanne Marie Marquette, Attorneys at Law with Pittsburgh Estate Law.

Fostering Awareness

There is a dire need for foster parents in our area and there are many ways you can help. Come find out how you can make a difference in the lives of children.

Programs

The History of North Park Friday, April 26, 1:30pm

PLEASE REGISTER

From bison watched over by a family from Blackfeet Nation, to hosting a Civilian Conservation Corps camp, to the 3,094 acre forested oasis we all love today, North Park has a long and interesting history.

Allegheny County Park Ranger Deaglan McManus will share photographs and stories of this jewel of the North Hills.

Presenter:

Deaglan McManus has been a Park Ranger for Allegheny County since 2017, and specializes in the educational programs offered to schools, libraries, and community groups. Deaglan has a bachelor's degree in Community Organizing and a master's degree in Public History.

Nature "Snippets" (For Adults)

Harmony in the Wild: Peacefully Co-existing with Local Wildlife

APRIL 11, 1:30pm REGISTER HERE
GUEST MASTER NATURALIST CHAR ROSS!

Don't miss our popular nature series with educators and Master Naturalists. Participants will learn about all things nature in these hands-on workshops. This is an adult-focused program series, ages 16 and up.

This event and lively discussion will include info and tips for discouraging "nuisance" wildlife behavior in your garden/backyard/around the home, with an emphasis on prevention being our best course of action. We will explore ways in which common local species are beneficial, and how respect for nature can improve our own enjoyment of green spaces. This program will appeal to: birdwatchers, gardeners, pet owners, wildlife enthusiast, people looking to make their own neighborhood more eco friendly... basically anyone who appreciates nature!

Presenter Char Ross is a PA Master Naturalist, member of the PA State Taxidermy Association, board member of the Churchill Area Environmental Council, and new member of the PA Environmental Educators Council.

April Fools' Day Challenge!
Monday, April 1 – Saturday, April 6

April is National Poetry Month

- We're celebrating by featuring a local poet each day in April on our Facebook page. Check out the new poems each morning at 9:00am!
- Have you ever made a 'spine' poem? Try stacking books so that their titles on the spine make a poem. Take a picture and email us at shalerref@shalerlibrary.org
- Not sure that you like poetry? Try reading a poet that is considered 'accessible'—Mary Oliver, Ted Kooser, Billy Collins, Sharon Olds. Give it a try!
